Library Instruction

Since there will be a wide variety of course delivery methods for this fall, please let us know your needs for Library instruction. We can provide these types of sessions:

- In-person (for smaller classes)
- In your classroom or the Library
- Remote synchronous
- Remote asynchronous

Librarians can also create library guides or tutorials to help your students with assignments or research concepts. Contact your Liaison Librarian today.

Departing Databases

Due to the campus budget situation, we have canceled a number of online resources.

Check the EResources Removals page for a list of departing databases, journals, ebooks (from Ebook Central) and films (from Films on Demand).

APA 7th Edition Debuts

The Library has officially adopted the 7th edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association: The Official Guide to APA Style. The changes should make things easier for you and your students.

Reference & Instruction Librarians, Ellen Latorraca and Naomi Schemm's April LEARN Center Presentation, APA 7th Edition: What's New & How Reference Librarians Can Help, is now available on the Library's YouTube channel. The video will give you a good overview of APA's simplified citations and style elements. And there are lots more APA videos in our APA Youtube playlist.

Get Your Online ... On

Looking for ways to improve your online or hybrid classes? This summer faculty requested several new ebooks related to online teaching. All have unlimited simultaneous users, so there is no waiting:

- ◆ Small Teaching Online: Applying Learning Science In Online Classes (Ebook Central)
- ◆ Handbook of Research on Creating Meaningful Experiences in Online Courses (IGI)
- ◆ Teaching Online: A Practical Guide (Ebook Central)

See Research@UWW to find more books about teaching online.

Warhawks Recommend

Do you have a favorite Andersen Library or Lenox Library book? You can now share your book recommendations with your fellow Warhawks.

We will feature the book -- and the reasons you think it will resonate with our campus -- on the Library's blog.

Just fill out the form on the Faculty & Staff Resources guide and we'll take it from there.

Kanopy Streaming

If you use Kanopy streaming films in your classes, be aware that the one-year film licenses may expire in the middle of the term!

To view the license dates, search for the film title in Research@UWW and select the record.

Contact us to renew the license if it will expire before it is needed.

Full Text Available At: view full text
