Out With the Old In 2020

The new year will mark a few changes in our repertoire of databases. Due to high subscription costs in relation to use, we are canceling these databases. If you use these products, please note the alternative database suggestions. And don't forget interlibrary loan via ILLiad.

Book, DVDs, CDs—Holiday Sale

Here is your chance to stock up on books for the holiday break. This month's sale features biographies, sciences, education, and teaching. And there are plenty of feature film DVDs along with a few CDs.
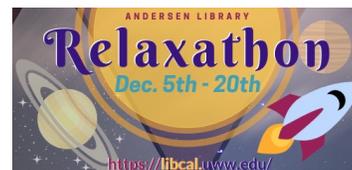

And don't forget that you can donate books, DVD and CDs to the Library.

Relaxathon @ Andersen

From sacred herbs and pet therapy to student survival kits and stress balls, the Relaxathon has activities for students, faculty and staff.

See the Library's Events Calendar for a full line-up of events at Andersen Library.

Festivities begin on Thursday, December 5 with The Four Sacred Herbs Craft Session (Native American Cultural Awareness Association), 5-6pm. Events continue through exam period.

Virtual Desktop: Off-Campus Fix

Do you or your students ever have trouble accessing Andersen Library online resources from off-campus? If so, iCIT has a workaround using the Citrix software.

The Library's Troubleshooting page https://www.uww.edu/library/get-help has information on using Citrix to solve off-campus access issues relating to the Library's proxy server and it includes other off-campus access tips as well.
