

Alcohol/Marijuana Related Policy Violation	Sanction
First*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Online alcohol/drug education course¹ (cost of $35) ● Disciplinary probation for a minimum of one year ● Signed statement of understanding of conduct policy and consequences of future violations
Second*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Choices² (Residence Life - charge of $100), or ● Alcohol Awareness Workshop³ (charge of $100), or ● Marijuana Awareness Workshop⁴ (charge of $100) ● Extended disciplinary probation ● Signed statement of understanding of conduct policy and consequences of future violations ● Residence hall relocation and/or ban likely, ● if incident occurred in a residence hall
Third*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● AODA (alcohol or other drug abuse) Assessment⁵ ● Extended disciplinary probation ● Signed statement of understanding of conduct policy and consequences of future violations ● Residence hall contract cancellation and/or ban, if incident occurred in a residence hall ● 8 to 10 page paper on responsibility, life choices; possibility of suspension
Fourth*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Suspension from the University for a period of up to two years

This chart presents general guidelines for typical violations; however any single violation may result in more serious sanctions depending on the severity of that specific incident. Additionally, a minor violation may result in less severe sanctions than the general guidelines.

Alcohol policy violations committed by students under the age of 21 will also result in notification of the student's parent(s) or legal guardian(s). Notification will occur in writing, unless the situation warrants a different method.

Disciplinary probation means that a student may remain enrolled at the university as long as the student complies with specified standards of conduct and completes all assigned disciplinary sanctions.

¹ The online alcohol or marijuana education course is a course purchased from a vendor where a student pays the cost established by the vendor.

² Choices is an alcohol or marijuana screening program that enables students to examine their use pattern and its implications for their academic, emotional, and physical well-being. The program facilitates increased awareness of alcohol/marijuana use patterns and enlightened choices for future behavior.

³ The Alcohol Awareness Workshop consists of individual screening and feedback in addition to two group sessions with an educational and motivational enhancement format, offered through the Dean of Students Office.

⁴ The Marijuana Awareness Workshop consists of individual screening and feedback in addition to one group session with an educational and motivational enhancement format, offered through the Dean of Students Office.

⁵ The AODA assessment consists of a three session, individual AODA assessment with a staff member of the University Health and Counseling Services.