Our Mission
Support area schools curriculum by providing culturally diverse programs for K-12 students. It is our Vision—with your help—to cultivate a lasting appreciation of the performing arts among young people. Attending a Horizons Matinee Series performance both fulfills Common Core State Standards and provides young people with entertaining and artistically diverse opportunities to learn. We hope you will join us in ensuring that all children have access to and develop a respect for the Arts.

Partners In Education
Young Auditorium, UWW/University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, and the School District of Janesville are members of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Partnership Program. The Partnership Team for this program participates in collaborative efforts to make the arts an integral part of education in our region. For more information about the Partners in Education Program, visit www.kennedy-center.org/education The Young Auditorium is a nonprofit organization under Section 115 of the Internal Revenue Code. No state tax revenue supported the printing of this material.

Funding
The Horizons Matinee Series and arts education outreach programs are funded cooperatively by the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, participating schools, Fort Health Care, several public and private institutions, and the Dorothy Remp Elmer Children’s Arts Outreach Endowment.

Schools with an economically disadvantaged student population (35% or more free or reduced lunch) may apply for a subsidy to help with the cost of their reservation. Art4All subsidy applications will be accepted May to September, 2019. This program is for school groups only.
